CBIS CONTINUES STRATEGIC EXPANSION OF THE INVESTMENT TEAM

CBIS' Heritage of serving Catholic investors globally

Chicago, Illinois. Christian Brothers Investment Services (CBIS), a Catholic socially responsible investment manager serving Catholic investors around the world, announced the appointment of Constance Christian, CFA to the position of Portfolio Manager on October 9. As a senior member of the Catholic Responsible InvestmentSM team, Connie will work directly with internal and external stakeholders, and be responsible for manager due diligence and research, portfolio construction and evaluating risk, marketing, product development and product management.

"This new addition, based in Chicago, highlights our commitment to serve Catholic investors," said Jeff McCroy, President and CEO of CBIS. Connie is an accomplished professional, that identifies with our mission for investing in a manner that is consistent with the Catholic faith."

"Connie will work with our internal investment team, as well as with external constituents, we expect Connie's diverse expertise will play an important role in keeping CBIS at the forefront of integrating faith and finance," said John W. Geissinger, CIO.

Prior to joining CBIS Connie was with Wespath Investment Management where she was responsible for the oversight of over $10 billion in fixed income assets. Connie started her career at Brinson Partners as a portfolio manager, before joining Wespath, she was a mathematics teacher at William Howard Taft High School. Constance has a BSBA from Xavier University, a MA in Mathematics from DePaul University, and an MBA in Finance from Xavier University, and is a CFA charterholder.
