

CBIS Invests in Future Growth of the West Team

Chicago, June 29, 2020 - Christian Brothers Investment Services, Inc. (CBIS) today announced that Chela Mitchell is joining CBIS as a Managing Director, Investor & Consultant Relations, reporting to Jeffrey McCroy, President and CEO. Chela will be responsible for growing CBIS' relationships with a diverse array of Catholic institutional investors and will join the West Coast Investor Services team. Additionally, she will work closely with CBIS' Catholic Responsible InvestmentsSM team, as well as external investment consultants, investment committee chairs, finance officers and church leadership (Bishops & Cardinals) to deliver single and multi-strategy solutions to Catholic institutional investors.

Chela joins CBIS with 25+ years of investment industry experience, having worked at several blue-chip asset management firms, including Frank Russell / Russell Investments and Carillon Tower Advisors. She has a proven track record of successfully building investor relationships. She has a BA, MBA and Series 7 and 63 FINRA licenses.

Jeffrey McCroy, President and CEO, is delighted that CBIS is able to invest in such a talented professional with Chela's experience. More specifically, he commented "CBIS' exclusive focus on Catholic institutional investors means that we take our time to find the right fit when adding important members to our team. I believe Chela is such a fit. She is thrilled to join our firm and supports the mission and core tenets that lie at the heart of who we are as a firm."
