

CBIS Invests in Future Growth of the Central Team

Chicago, September 15, 2020 - Christian Brothers Investment Services, Inc. (CBIS) today announced that David Vandergriff is joining CBIS as a Managing Director, Investor & Consultant Relations, reporting to Jeffrey McCroy, President and CEO. David will be responsible for growing CBIS' relationships with a diverse array of Catholic institutional investors and will join the Central Investor Services team. Additionally, he will work closely with CBIS' Catholic Responsible Investments<sup>SM</sup> team, as well as external investment consultants, investment committee chairs, finance officers and church leadership (Bishops & Cardinals) to deliver single and multi-strategy solutions to Catholic institutional investors.

David joins CBIS with nearly 20 years of investment industry experience, having worked at Banc One Investment Advisors, Allegiant Asset Management, and Oak Brook Investments. He has a proven track record of successfully building investor relationships. He has a BA from Wabash College.

Jeffrey McCroy, President and CEO, is delighted that CBIS is able to invest in talented professional with David's experience. More specifically, he commented "CBIS' exclusive focus on Catholic institutional investors means that we take our time to find the right fit when adding important members to our team. I believe David is such a fit. He is thrilled to join our firm and supports the mission and core tenets that lie at the heart of who we are as a firm."
