Year-to-Date Review

- The fund outperformed the benchmark. With rates rising throughout the early part of the year, the shorter average duration positioning helped. Curve positioning was also additive throughout the year.
- Underweight to Treasuries and overweight to Corporates had a positive effect.
- Selection decisions detracted.

Three-Month Review

- The duration and yield curve positioning throughout the period had little impact on relative performance.
- Sector decisions also had little impact.
- Selection decisions were slightly negative due to the impact from holdings in mortgage passthroughs. Positive selection in corporate credit partially offset the negative effects from the MBS holdings.

Current Positioning

- Effective duration ended the quarter a little bit above the benchmark.
- The fund is underweight Treasuries. Offsetting this underweight are overweights to ABS, CMBS, and Financials.
- The fund is overweight the 0-1-year duration bucket by 12% and is underweight the 7+ year duration bucket.
