3-Month / YTD Review

- Stock selection was the primary driver of relative performance. Contributions from selection were positive from within every sector except Materials, Consumer Staples and Health Care. Names within Consumer Discretionary, Information Technology, Financials, and Industrials added the most.
- Sector selection, driven by underlying security selection decisions, had a modest negative impact as the gains made due to the overweight in Industrials, underweight in Financials, and underweight in Real Estate were more than offset by the underweights in Information Technology and Materials.

Current Positioning

- Positioning is relatively stable from quarter to quarter. The overall positioning is determined by the combined security selection decisions.
- About 90% of the Fund's market value invested in developed nation securities and 10% in emerging markets.
- Materials was underweight, all other sector weights are in line with the Benchmark.
