Indices are unmanaged and do not include the effect of fees. One cannot invest in an index.

Performance data shown prior to 12/06/2021 is that of the funds of the Catholic United Investment Trust (the "Predecessor Funds"). The Predecessor Funds were managed by the Adviser using investment objectives, strategies, policies and restrictions that were in all material respects equivalent. The performance information has been adjusted to reflect Fund expenses which may result in higher or lower performance.

ATTRIBUTION

3-Month / YTD Review

- During the quarter, an overweight duration position versus the benchmark was a contributor to performance, versus credit positioning, which delivered no impact to excess returns.
- Similar to the previous quarter, particular exposures to banking sector bonds, taxable municipals and agency mortgages having the largest contribution.

Current Positioning

- The fund holds 121 securities.
- Approximately 40% of assets were allocated to asset-backed and corporate securities, focused on outyielding the benchmark while maintaining a high quality and well diversified portfolio.

Before investing you should carefully consider the Funds' investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other information is available in the prospectus, or summary prospectus. Please read the prospectus carefully before you invest. The prospectus, or summary prospectus, can be obtained by calling 1-866-348-6466.

Mutual fund investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its stated objectives. Current and future holdings are subject to risk. Asset allocation may not protect against market risk. Investment in the Fund(s) is subject to the risks of the underlying Funds. Bonds are subject to interest rate risk and will decline in value as interest rates rise. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, international investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. Bonds and bond funds generally decrease in value as interest rates rise. Mortgage-backed securities are subject to prepayment and extension risk and therefore react differently to changes in interest rates than other bonds. Small movements in interest rates may quickly and significantly reduce the value of certain mortgage-backed securities. There is no guarantee that the Fund's income will be exempt from federal or state income taxes. Capital gains, if any, are subject to capital gains tax. Bonds and bond funds will decrease in value as interest rates rise. Income from municipal bonds may be subject to the alternative minimum tax. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, investments in smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility. An investment in the fund(s) is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.
