Catholic Responsible Investments Funds and Defined Contribution Plans

As a trusted partner to Catholic investors around the world, CBIS is committed to providing retirement plan sponsors and their participants with competitive Catholic investment options through CBIS' Catholic Responsible Investments Funds (CRI Funds).

At CBIS, our Investment Team recognizes experienced money managers and carefully integrates their unique capabilities into a single fund. Key to our integrated managers approach is our conviction that investment managers can be identified that generate above-market performance over the long term.

The CRI Funds — nine CRI single-asset funds and four multi-asset funds of funds — combines investment managers with unique and complementary styles, while integrating the Catholic Responsible Investments approach into the investment process.

CRI Single-Asset Funds

A full range of equity and fixed income strategies that combine the investment expertise of multiple investment managers with CBIS' Catholic Responsible Investments approach.

CRI Magnus Funds

A series of multi-asset risk-based strategies built to provide comprehensive asset management and disciplined rebalancing in a turnkey fund. Each Magnus offering is a “fund of funds” seeking to achieve its objective by combining single-asset Catholic Responsible Investments Funds.

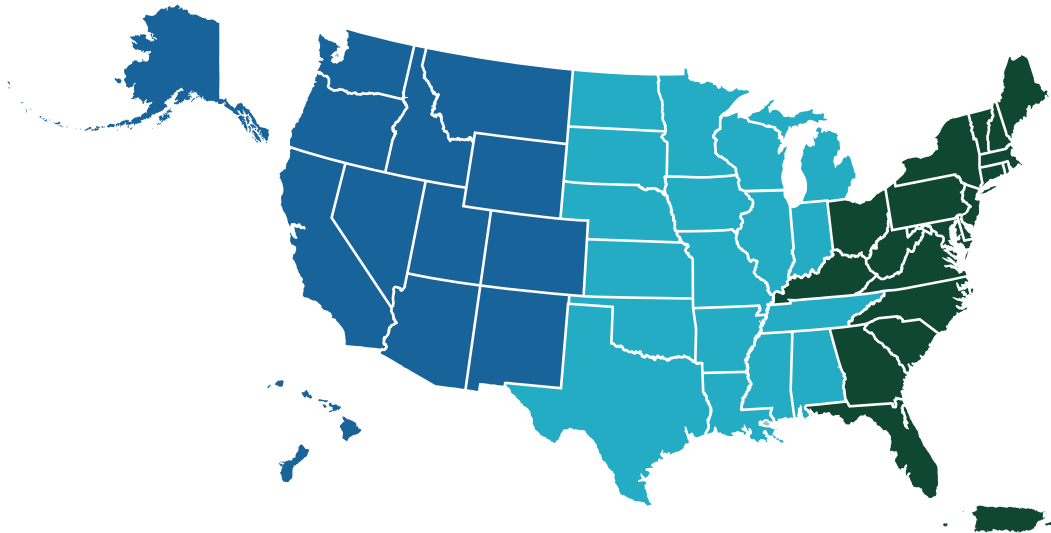

Why Consider CBIS' CRI Funds?

- Long-term performance and risk management record
- Aligned with USCCB Socially Responsible Investment Guidelines
- Competitive pricing and fee structure
- Pure products with competitive returns
