CRI International Equity Fund Review

Global markets delivered strong performance over the fiscal year, despite periods of heightened volatility. Market fluctuations were driven by shifts in monetary policy, evolving tariff expectations, and ongoing trade negotiations influenced by U.S. policy. Geopolitical tensions in the Middle East added further uncertainty to the economic landscape.

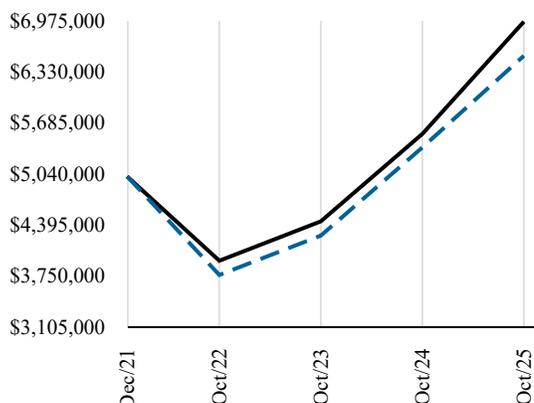

Yet, resilience remained a defining feature of global markets. Investor confidence held firm, supported by adaptive strategies and diversified growth across regions. Notably, the Federal Reserve began cutting interest rates in the third and fourth quarters, even as inflationary pressures persisted. This policy pivot underscored the balancing act between sustaining economic momentum and managing price stability.

The Fund provided positive returns for the fiscal year. Positive performance in international equity markets over the last 12 months was primarily driven by strong corporate earnings growth, a weaker U.S. dollar, more attractive valuations relative to the U.S. market, and new fiscal stimulus measures in several regions.

Householding

Rule 30e-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 permits funds to transmit only one copy of a proxy statement, annual report or semi-annual report to shareholders (who need not be related) with the same residential, commercial or electronic address, provided that the shareholders have consented in writing and the reports are addressed either to each shareholder individually or to the shareholders as a group. This process is known as “householding” and is designed to reduce the duplicate copies of materials that shareholders receive and to lower printing and mailing costs for funds. Once implemented, if you would like to discontinue householding for your accounts, please call toll-free at 866-348-6466 to request individual copies of these documents. Once the Fund receives notice to stop householding, we will begin sending individual copies 30 days after receiving your request.
